

NAME: _____

A Matter of Time
Comp Lit 65/Math 5
Winter 2013
Dwight Lahr and Beatriz Pastor

Final Exam and Grading Key

The final is to write a five-to-six-page double-spaced library research paper:

Title: Time in the 20th and 21st Centuries

Analyze the radical re-conceptualization of Time in the 20th century as highlighted by major developments in the sciences, the arts, and the humanities.

In developing your discussion make sure to compare and contrast Einstein's theory of Relativity and Cubism with at least two of the following:

Nietzsche: Reader selections

Borges: The South, Circular Ruins

Cortázar: The Night Face Up

Gabriel García Márquez: 100Years.. (Reader selections)

---

Citations:

You will find the new Borges and Cortázar readings in the Course Reader. Except for the mathematical material, you should cite from at least two library secondary sources in addition to the texts from the reader. Go right to the source to support your argument, and be specific. If you use material from the reader or the textbook, be sure to give the appropriate citation.

(continued-over)

Name _____

Topic# _____

Writing Guidelines for Paper

Selection of ideas (60 points)

- Selects the best combination of central ideas
- Makes good connections
- Shows good grasp and detailed reading of the materials

Clarity (10 points)

- Clean grammar
- Clear Organization
- Clarity of expression
- Conciseness

Textual Analysis (15 points)

- Good choice of examples.
- Clear analysis of key examples
- Discussion of elements that relate to major themes under discussion: images, motifs, scenarios, spaces, characters, etc.

Argumentation (15 points)

- States clearly thesis and conclusions
- Clear reasoning
- Good synthesis
- Develops a coherent argument

Total Score _____

---

Academic Honor Principle

On homework, the final paper: Feel free to brainstorm with fellow students, the tutor, or your instructors. However, when it comes to writing your paper (or any other materials for submission), you must do so by yourself, except for whatever assistance you may get from the Writing Center tutors. It is a violation of the Honor Principle to share electronic files or notes, or to participate in editing a joint document. You must produce by yourself the paper written for submission.