

Lagrangian intersections and homotopy theory

Octav Cornea

University of Montreal

Thursday, April 10, 2003

102 Bradley Hall, 4:00 pm
(Tea 3:30 pm Math Lounge)

Abstract

I shall discuss some ways in which homotopy theory enters the study of pairs of Lagrangian submanifolds of a symplectic manifold. Such pairs play a central role in symplectic topology as their intersection properties reflect some of the most specific features of the symplectic category.